Memo #12

Delegation of Authority:

There is no delegation of authority language in our collective agreement. Each school has administration teams—they are responsible for our schools.

Teachers should neither be asked to, nor should they agree to - be “in charge” of a school in the absence of the administration team. If you are asked to be in charge of a building at any time please let me know immediately.

This is not about teacher-in-charge assignments as those always occur with an existing member of the administration team. This is about teachers and schools being left without a member of their administration present.
